

Future Proofing Our Work Stress Protections

Saturday, November 24th 9.30 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. to
Sunday, November 25th 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.

Hillscourt Conference Centre, Rose Hill, Rednal, Birmingham, B45 8RS

Brexit is nearly upon us whether we like it or not.

No-one has any idea precisely what is ahead for us all we can say for certain is that as trade unionists we will be operating in a challenging and changing environment.

Our national conference will give an opportunity to reflect, discuss & learn from each other. We will examine what is ahead as hopefully we will have by then a much clearer idea of the future!

We will focus on how we can best defend our hard-won H&S protections whatever the atmosphere we are faced with.

We will look at the strategies we will need to use. Whistleblowing, campaigning, organising, and how we protect ourselves.

We will be identifying the protections already achieved in work stress, what is under threat and how best to protect them

Speakers and workshops to be confirmed, Those who attend regularly will be aware of our record for providing interesting and speakers and stimulating and useful workshops!
